Established in 1990, the Company Re-locates to Downtown Las Vegas Art District

LAS VEGAS – July 26, 2005 – Artistic Iron Works debuts a new state-of-the-art ornamental iron gallery, announces the entrepreneurial husband and wife team, Tom Prato and Karen Bailey, who established the company in 1990. The new 33,000 square-foot facility, one of the most comprehensive in the nation, is now located in the Downtown Las Vegas Art District at 105 West Charleston Boulevard.

Artistic Iron Works takes ornamental iron products out of the catalog pages and into an interactive showroom where customers can visualize and touch the works of art. The company offers every facet of ornamental iron fixtures including iron fences, door and window guards, front entry way enclosures, pool fences and gates, front entry doors/glass, courtyard gates, patio furniture, gazebos, interior railings, single and double gates, balcony rails exterior, multi-family stairs, curtain rods, paper holders, towel holders, trellises, flower pot racks, wine racks, wine cellar doors, wall art and more.

The showroom displays three levels of iron available from economy to luxurious including level one, pre-made and standardized; level two, pre-forged; and level three, hand crafted and fortified. Styles of iron include Renaissance, French, Southwest, Contemporary, Mediterranean, and Italian. Each type of iron can be treated with faux finish, paint, powder coating and more. Artistic Iron Works was the first company to introduce hand forgings and faux finishes as well as new design concepts for outdoor decorative products to the Nevada marketplace. Artistic Iron Works also offers welding and repair services.

“The new showroom truly is a haven not only for our residential customers, but for our designer and architect clientele,” said Prato. “We have been working for more than a year-and-half conceptualizing and creating massive displays in a notional room setting that offers customers the chance to visualize how the iron art will look inside their home or business. Whether it's backyard garden furniture, a large commercial railing or a simple wine rack, we are ready to create and turn our customers’ dreams into reality,” he added.

Artistic Iron Works is located in the Downtown Las Vegas Art District at 105 West Charleston Boulevard, Las Vegas, NV 89102.
